ABOUT LANGETWINS

The LangeTwins family has been sustainably farming in the Lodi appellation for five generations. In 2006, they opened LangeTwins Winery to create approachable wines from their estate vineyards.

ENJOY SUSTAINABLE WINES

For the past 30 years, the family has focused on respecting the land, responsible energy use and the desire to make the most environmentally-friendly wine possible. They show their commitment by being certified by The Lodi Rules.

MEET JOE & AMANDA LANGE

Born in Lodi, Joe, the youngest son of Randall and Charlene Lange, is a graduate of Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, with a double major in Agriculture Business and Wine and Viticulture. Joe met Amanda at Cal Poly where she was also studying Agriculture Business. After graduating, they got married and moved to Lodi.

In early 2007, Joe joined the family winery as their Webmaster, Wine Club Manager and Digital Marketing Manager. Amanda spent six years working in hospitality for Lodi area wineries. In 2013, Amanda joined LangeTwins Winery as the Hospitality Manager with the opening of the Press Room.

Outside of work, Joe and Amanda enjoy cooking, traveling, cycling and running with their dog, Arrow.
